Firstly, I am very much dissatisfied with the said Bradstreets behaviour at my own house and elsewhere: 2dly That after I had conversed with my said daughter respecting her keeping company with the said Bradstreet she told me that she did not desire his company or any other mans but Ephraim Fosters: 3dly I am dissatisfied with Moses Tyler, brother to the said Bradstreet, in that he came to my house when I was from home, and carried away my said daughter to his house where his said brother Bradstreet, could have her company without my knowledge, by means of which as she was where I could not see her to offer her any advice; I have reason to think advantages was taken to perswade her to consent to have her Intention of Marriage with the said Bradstreet published: 4thly Immediately upon her being carried from my house I missed several things which I suppose were taken a-way with her: and I do hereby forbid any person to joyn the said Bradstreet and Mary in marriage at their Peril, untill I am sat-isfied as to the above objections: attest, per me, Joshua Foster.
